

Royal Botanic Gardens Science Seminar Series 2009

DATE	TIME	NAME	TOPIC
15-April	12 noon	Dr Paul Thomas, UWS	"Segregation of species that regenerate after fire from soil-stored seeds in wet or dry habitat"
13 May	12 noon	Hannah McPherson	Talk on Germany/Australia Association scholarship to help identify and curate the collections of Amalie Dietrich, a German naturalist who collected about 20,000 plants from Australia between 1863 and 1872 now at Hamburg Herbarium.
10 June	12 noon	Peter Donaldson, JUPE Productions	Talk on the making of a documentary on Joseph Hooker (1817-1911), one of the greatest botanists and explorers of the 19 th century and Director of Kew Gardens (1865-1885). Peter's team is the first to retrace his ground- breaking journey of 1848 through Nepal.
8 July	12 noon	Endymion Cooper, PhD student	TBA
12 Aug	12 noon	Lucas Shuttleworth, PhD student	Talk on chestnut rot project

Seminars are usually on a Wednesday (unless specified), 1 hour long and in the Large Caley Room, Level 4, Brown Building (Herbarium), Sydney Gardens, Mrs Macquaries Rd. Please check on seminar details for last minute changes before attending.

If you are interested in giving a seminar please contact Ifeanna Tooth or Kristina McColl on 92318140, or Sheryl Saban on 92318164 or by email Ifeanna.Tooth@rbgsyd.nsw.gov.au or Sheryl.Saban@rbgsyd.nsw.gov.au

National Herbarium of New South Wales, Botanic Gardens Trust, Sydney