

Director of the Centre Promotion

The Director of the Centre, Rob Brooks, has been promoted to full Professor. This is in recognition of his outstanding achievements in research and teaching and his major contribution to the University, not the least of which is the establishment of the Evolution and Ecology Research Centre. Professor Brooks is an ARC Queen Elizabeth II Research Fellow and was recently awarded another major ARC Discovery grant with Professor William Ballard.

Professor Brooks (right) with the Australian Minister for Innovation, Industry, Science and Research, Hon Kim Carr

27 November, 2008